2025年SCSL之“神仙会”

Anna-Alexandra Fodde-Reguer

The topics at the Research Forum at SCSL this year were robust and varied, reflecting the many directions Chinese librarianship has taken.

The first presentation was given by Cecilia Zhang (University of Kansas) and was entitled “Artificial Intelligence and Information Literacy in the Era of Academic Database-Enhanced Generative AI: Emerging Challenges, Novel Approaches, and Future Directions.” This project was a collaborative effort between Cecilia, Khamo (George Washington University), Bing Wang (University of Illinois, Urbana Champaign) and Shuqi Ye (University of Wisconsin). The four of them investigated the application of Critical AI Literacy in research strategies in the field of humanities, exemplified by a case study of CNKI SMART, an AI-driven feature in provided by CNKI. The collaborators proposed a Critical AI Literacy evaluation practice that they called the RACBAC Standard (Relevance, Accuracy, Coverage, Bias, Authority, and Currency) and evaluates GenAI outputs based on those seven skills. Through the CNKI SMART case study, Cecilia demonstrated the application of the RACBAC Standards. Findings highlight the necessity of librarians’ role in assisting researchers to cross-reference and critically examine GenAI-assisted research using the proposed standards.

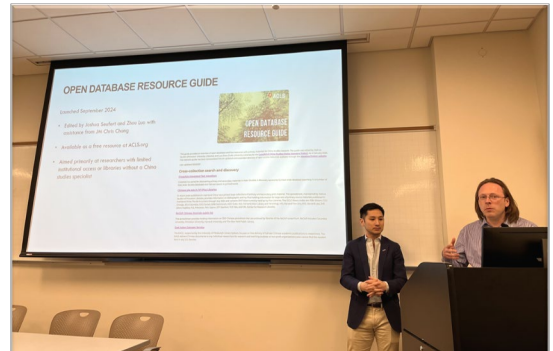

Veronica Fu, the East Asian Collections librarian at the University of Virginia shared with us a research project entitled, “Reclaiming a Lost Connection: Harry Clemons & Nanking University.” Veronica’s presentation was about an interesting collection in the archives of the University of Virginia’s Special Collections, and focused on over 60 letters exchanged between Harry Clemons, a former faculty member at the University of Nanking, and his Chinese colleagues from the 1920s to the 1940s. These letters reflect the intellectual camaraderie and enduring friendships between Chinese and American scholars during a period of profound global and political upheaval. They also underscore Clemons’s sustained involvement in advancing library development at the University of Nanking. Veronica’s approach offered the audience both a comprehensive understanding of the research project and a nuanced appreciation of the correspondence’s historical significance. By delving into these archival treasures, the presentation highlighted the depth and humanity of these cross-cultural exchanges, celebrating the collaborative spirit that has long characterized academic endeavors across borders.

In her presentation entitled, “When Chan Kwan-Po met Shen Chung-Chang” Esther Woo (University of Hong Kong) also explored the interesting history of former librarians and their collecting efforts. In a fascinating story, Esther told the tale beginning in 1937, when Shen Chung-Chang joined the rescue of 10,200 Han-dynasty wooden slips, initially excavated in the Juyan Lake Basin during the Sino-Swedish Expedition. To protect the wooden slips from potential damage by Japanese troops, he transported them from Beijing to Tianjin and then to Hong Kong. The Fung Ping Shan Librarian at the University of Hong Kong at the time, Chan Kwan-Po, helped him preserve this treasure when the library served as a temporary repository of rare cultural artefacts from Mainland China. Esther’s presentation introduced two associated digitization projects being implemented in the University of Hong Kong Libraries, namely Chan Kwan-Po Diaries and the documents generated by the Sino-Swedish Expedition and subsequent deciphering of the wooden slips.

Our first lightning talk was presented by Jianye He (University of California Berkeley) on behalf of herself and Zhaohui Xue (Stanford University) and was titled “Providing access to extended resources through Cross-Institutional Collaborations.” The East Asian Libraries of Stanford University and the UC Berkeley have a long history of cooperative collection building and sharing. In 2012, a formal Cooperative Collection Development Agreement was signed by both University Librarians. Among the twenty-one academic disciplines, Chinese studies is one of the major fields that needs close collaboration in order to provide access for users of both institutions to broader and deeper collections of materials. Aligning with more Berkeley-Stanford academic programs and scholarly activities in recent years, such as the annual Berkeley-Stanford Graduate Conference and orientations for visiting scholars, collaborations were expanded from collection development to in-person instruction workshops and advanced reference services, with a focus on the special collections of each library. The multi-faceted collaboration is not only playing a critical role in cost-effective resource sharing and inspiring original research but also promoting more “hidden treasures” to scholars.

Our second lightning talk was presented by Hsianghui Liu-Spencer (Carleton College) entitled, “Carleton College Chinese Students to 1950.” Inspired by a 2023 SCSL presentation, Hsianghui delved into the “Who’s Who of Foreign-Educated Chinese” and uncovered some interesting details about the Chinese alumni from that time period. Focusing on ephemera such as yearbooks, academic records, and student newspapers kept at the Archives, Hsianghui shared with us her findings and her hopes for future research.

Our final lightning talk was presented by JM Chris Chang and supported by Joshua Seufert (Princeton University). The China Mapping Project of the American Council of Learned Societies was introduced to our members and some of the work several of our colleagues have contributed to over the last year was highlighted.

My conference trip to Hong Kong in the summer of 2025

Xi Chen

During the summer of 2025, I had a great experience participating in the 8th Sino-American Library Forum from 7/14-15, visiting the Hong Kong Book Fair on 7/16 and the University Service Center (USC) at the Chinese University of Hong Kong (CUHK) on 7/17. The Forum was co-organized by China Academic Social Sciences and Humanities Libraries (CASHL), Society of Chinese Studies Librarians (SCSL), and Hong Kong University.

The forum explored cultural development and smart technologies in libraries. Speakers highlighted East Asia Libraries' role in Sino-Western exchange, cross-border collaboration, and preservation of historical sources. Presentations also showed how Chinese academic libraries are rapidly adopting AI for metadata work, teaching, research, and staff development.

Towards the end of the forum, I presented my poster co-authored with Dr. Heather Briston of UC San Diego and Ms. Xiaoyuan Chen of Fudan University, sharing our experience of Piloting the Librarian Virtual Exchange Program between UC San Diego Library and Fudan University Library in fall 2023. Xiaoyuan and I received great feedback from the audience. Colleagues who showed great interests in our poster also shared their experience of hosting international interns and visiting librarians.

My first time attending the Hong Kong International Book Fair was a wonderful experience as well. A plethora of publishers represented mainland China, Hong Kong SAR, Taiwan and other regions of the world. I was pleasantly surprised to see some small independent publishers were present at the fair. One of them specialized in the Cultural Revolution period. Another publisher displayed publications on various well-known Chinese cultural intellectuals.

My last event in Hong Kong was a group visit to CUHK's Universities Service Centre (USC). Saying it was satisfying would be an understatement. Having the opportunity to view their prestigious collection on the history of the People's Republic of China and speak with the curator Dr. Miriam Seeger made enduring the heat and humidity well worth it. I learned about the history of the USC and their policy for using materials onsite, which I later shared with our graduate students who had the plan to visit the center in the near future.

Tang Li (University of Southern California) and Dongyun Ni (University of Hawai'i) presented "Discovering the World of Sinophone Studies: A Digital Initiative" at the 2025 Pacific Rim Research Libraries Alliance (PRRLA) Annual Meeting. Their presentation introduced Sinophone Studies: An Annotated Bibliography, a project supported by an ALA Carnegie-Whitney Grant, and traced its evolution from a traditional bibliography to an AI-enhanced online platform. The session concluded with a video demonstration by Edward Yagi (University of Hawai'i), highlighting the prototype's advanced search capabilities and interactive chatbot features. The presentation was very well received by attendees and underscored the project's innovative approach to digital scholarship.

2021年，加拿大维多利亚大学图书馆工程学科馆员Aditi Gupta与亚洲研究馆员柳瀛在图书馆教学和咨询服务中注意到因为缺乏文化包容性造成的不良学习影响。在此后的三年中，她们在获得了维多利亚图书馆和教学创新中心（LTI）的资助后，合作开发了一套工具包 Culturally Responsive and Inclusive Teaching Toolkit，旨在为图书馆教学人员、参考服务人员和教师提供指导，提高学习者的体验，让学生在学术环境中获得高度重视的归属感。

Camosun 学院图书馆员Robbyn Lanning 以及Camosun卓越教学与学习中心的教育开发者、原住民化专家 Sk'ing Lúudas Natasha Parrish 也参与合作撰写了工具包中的去殖民化教学部分。图书馆员和讲师可以在教学中选择并嵌入一两项工具包的内容，花半小时浏览包容性教学检查清单，然后在课堂中有选择地应用。欢迎同行们的反馈和建议。

Hello, I'm Wanheng Li 李宛珩, the Librarian for Asian Studies and Philosophy at Vanderbilt University. I hold a BA in East Asian Studies and a BS in Behavioral Neuroscience from the University of Kansas, as well as an MS in Library and Information Science from the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign.

What I enjoy most in my job is collaboration—co-teaching with librarian colleagues, supporting faculty research projects, and partnering with campus units on outreach events. I look forward to networking and collaboration opportunities at SCSL!

I am Zhaohui Liu, the Asian Studies Librarian at Pennsylvania State University. I joined Penn State in July 2025 and became a member of the Society for Chinese Studies Librarians in August 2025. I am delighted to be part of the community dedicated to collaboration, scholarship, and professional exchange.

My academic background is in Chinese history. I earned my PhD with a research focus on the Qing dynasty and spent several years teaching and conducting research in this area. I am pleased to combine my academic expertise and experience with my role as an Asian Studies librarian. In my current position, I support teaching and research in Asian Studies across Chinese and other Asian languages, as well as Asian American Studies, through collection development, instruction, and reference services.

My professional interests include Chinese rare books, archival materials, and other special collections. I am particularly interested in collaborative approaches to collection development. I am also interested in digital humanities and in exploring how libraries can support teaching and research in evolving academic environments.

I look forward to connecting with fellow members, learning from colleagues, and being involved in future SCSL activities and collaborative opportunities.

Yung-hui Chou 周永蕙 joined the University of Michigan's Asia Library as Chinese Studies Librarian in May 2025. She oversees the Chinese collection development and provides reference services to the interdisciplinary Chinese Studies community at the U of M and beyond.

She earned her MSLIS from the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign in 2025, where she served as an assistant for East Asian collections and services at the International and Area Studies Library. Before pursuing librarianship, Yung-hui held various roles in Chinese Studies: She received her BA and MA in Chinese Literature from National Taiwan University and attended the PhD program in Asian Literature, Religion, and Culture at Cornell University. Her primary research area is the literature and historiography of medieval China, with recent interests expanding to the history of writing and books in pre-modern East Asia. She has also worked as a research assistant at Academia Sinica in Taiwan and taught as a language instructor at Colorado College.

前普林斯顿大学编目馆员

感谢学会通讯编辑组提供机会，我也是很愿意在退休的时候向大家问好致谢，就做个看图说话式的简短汇报吧。

我在1977年从北京三中考入北京大学图书馆学系，本科与研究生的专业方向是目录学。1984年毕业后在北京大学图书馆古籍部做编目，1989年起在普林斯顿大学做中文古籍及普通书编目，直至2025年退休。在6年学习+41年工作=47年中，我只在两个大学、只做编目这一个专业，并且一直乐在其中，觉得我做的就是世界上最好的工作啦。

1979年夏，北京大学图书馆东门

几十年中，学术交流及友情互动最多的社团当属咱们“中国研究图书馆员学会（SCSL）”了。我是1990年第一次在芝加哥参加东亚图书馆（CEAL）年会，结识的同仁逐年增加，既有学术上耳目一新的交流切磋，也有见面后相互调侃的开怀大笑；既有馆际间的合买合编书，也有个人日常的随意问答、远道互访。2010年SCSL成立后，我更是学会活动的直接受益者。2014年，我与SCSL众成员一起参加了CEAL与中国国家图书馆合办的第八期全国古籍鉴定与保护高级研修班。其间参观北大馆时，看到了大红绫本《世祖实录》。据此写出的文章被苏富比拍卖的相关人士参考。2021年，SCSL举办的线上学术会议中，我分享了普林斯顿大学所藏《空城计》京剧唱片的文章，据此而成的英文版发表在Journal of Cultural Interaction in East Asia。巧妙的是，SCSL前主席叶鼎2021年听了我唱的一段《空城计》后，便推荐我参加新泽西州国剧社，我因自己基础太差没敢联系。这事却在四年后直接惠及我的退休生活。享受SCSL大恩大德的同时，我也尽了一小点义务：与王晓燕一起，合编了中国研究图书馆员学会通讯（Issue 14, March 2023）。

我有两张在电脑前输入、查看编目记录的照片。一张是1989年刚来普林斯顿时，用RLIN系统的CJK键盘输入《中文善本书机读联合目录项目》CHRB编目记录。1993年起至退休，我的工作岗位是中日文编目员。另一张是2025年8月退休前在办公室查看编目记录。从两张间隔的36年中，我见证了从韦氏拼音到汉语拼音、从RLIN系统到OCLC、从GEAC到Voyager再到Alma、从AACR2到RDA的转换。编目的对象包括单本书、多卷书、期刊、胶卷、音像等。我偏向于把编目质量作为学术坚守，也尽可能兼顾包括按日计算的编目数量要求。从Alma可查到的统计中，我在退休前，是本校中日韩语种的书目记录及名称记录完全级别（BIB + NACO, full level）的最高编目记录数量保持者。

中文古籍编目是我四十年中倾心关注的。可查到的最早编目记录是我在1988年4月以ISBD格式填写的《北京大学图书馆机读目录工作单》古籍样例，岳柯撰《程史》。此样例由北大图书馆庄守经馆长寄给美国研究图书馆组织（RLG）副总裁John Haeger，协商落实国际善本书机读联合目录项目（CHRB）。2025年8月退休前，我所做的最后一个编目记录是《RLG中文善本书项目资料》。巧合的是，在整理这些资料时，从中意外发现了一盘我于1989年6月在普林斯顿所做的60分钟关于“古籍编目规则”的演讲录音带。这段跨越36年的声音，为我的职业生涯提供了适时的回放。

我参与起草了1987年版中国国家标准《古籍著录规则》。1989年起，伴随CHRB项目，结合AACR2，经多次专家顾问会议讨论、修订，形成2000版《中文善本书机读目录编目规则》。又经众人几次修订、适应RDA的变化，形成现行的2018版《中文善本书编目规则》。几十年中，我幸运地既作为规则的实践者，又作为规则的制订者参与其中，探索将中国古籍特点与国际标准格式融合的路径，避免本末倒置，学习和凝聚各路精英的智慧，得到难以回报的帮助，积累了有价值的美好体验。

我愿与中文图书馆员分享的是，事业与人品相辅相成。我们接触的文献本身具有丰厚人文底蕴和君子处世之道。从1984年工作起点的北大编目部到2025年退休时的普大东亚馆，我衷心感谢馆内外前辈、同行中“知行合一”的示范：守经、德熹、世纲、存训、复礼、思仁、信夫、德先，从这些人名即可洞见个人操守及事业格局，他们能够纳和言以平其政，履和行以平其德。即使偶遇与此相反之事、之人，也只是过客而已。

2025年8月31日是我的“工作毕业日”；而9月1日，是我“退休学院”的开学日。课程包括父母家族史研究、京剧、园艺。2025年收到AI报告，说我在使用者中位于前1%。新技术会带来新的退休享受，乐趣无限。我也盼望童心童颜不改呢😊

祝愿各位及家人2026马年平安、心想事成。

周欣平

前加州大学伯克利分校东亚图书馆馆长

转眼我从东亚图书馆业界退休半年多了。SCSL Newsletter 编辑组让我写一点关于我的职业生涯以及我和SCSL这个学术组织的交往。回首往事，感触良多。我在美国东亚图书馆界服务有34年，离开这个团体最难割舍的是这份事业和与朋友们的情谊。然而人生短暂，取舍在即，人人都会有卸甲归田、刀枪入库、马放南山的那一天。回顾我的职业生涯，和大多数人一样，一开始压根就没有想到将来会从事图书馆工作。上世纪70年代我在武汉大学读研究生时学的是英美语言文学。1981年研究生毕业后我在武汉大学留校任教四年，后就到了美国求学，研究语言学。拿到博士学位后阴差阳错地去学了个信息管理的硕士。在美国的第一份工作是在爱荷华大学，一半工作管理大学里的中文藏书，一半时间教书，然后就是1995年到匹兹堡大学担任东亚图书馆任馆长。2000年我任职伯克利加州大学东亚图书馆馆长和大学图书馆助理馆长。

回想起来，我的这个职业选择太对了。东亚图书馆这个行业给了我极大的弹性和空间可以发挥我的想象和能力。它让我游历在东西方文明之间，获得不同的灵感和反思，从而达到心灵上的升华和震撼。我后来在编辑出版的《东学西渐：北美东亚图书馆 1868-2008》和撰写那本《文明的交汇》一书时就沿袭这个思路，把这个观点和看法释放出来。北美地区东亚图书馆的从业人员都是文明的使者，我们的工作不仅仅是编目和采购，以及提供读者服务，我们是中西方文明和学术的推动者。这不是在拔高我们这个行业，而是给予我们行业一个迟到的认可。

说说我和SCSL的渊源。记得SCSL成立的时候我正担任东亚图书馆协会（CEAL）的主席。SCSL是由俄亥俄州立大学的李国庆教授等朋友们组织成立的，我参加了成立大会。那时我就认为SCSL这个专业学术团体正是CEAL所欠缺的。CEAL是专业团体，SCSL是学术团体，两者正好互补。SCSL聚集了一大批学术精良的饱学之士，把CEAL无法涉及的学术研究部分给补上了。事实上，在后来的十多年里，SCSL在推动东亚图书馆业内人士的学术研究和中美图书馆之间的交流方面起到了不可取代的作用。最令人难忘的是那些由学会组织的在中国各地的学术会议和交流活动，让我们的足迹踏遍了神州大地，从北京到内蒙，从山西到甘肃，我们这些学会的成员们合作亲密无间，在一起讨论议题，交流研究成果，一起旅行，同时也把我们的经验分享给两岸三地的同行。

编者问我三十多年的东亚图书馆生涯中最重要的事件是什么，那无疑是在伯克利筹建亚洲以外第一座独立的东亚图书馆大楼了。我在伯克利工作的最初八年里（2000-2008）有幸作为东亚图书馆的馆长主持了这个项目，遇到了一大批热心的捐赠者和支持者。我们终于在2007年完成了伯克利加州大学东亚图书馆大楼的建设。新的东亚图书馆于2008年正式对外开放。今天，它已成为伯克利校园的一处地标，一个集学术研究，学习和东亚文化之大成的机构。它代表伯克利对追求卓越学术和多元文化的承诺。

现在我退休了。一辈子都忙忙碌碌，退下来还真的需要找到一个新的重心。学校在我退休不久就(part-time)返聘我一年，让我能把手头上没有完成的工作继续下去，包括一些捐赠者的项目，如宋楚瑜档案项目和我多年来一直在做的赵元任档案整理、出版等项目。这些项目都是我的爱好。宋楚瑜先生是台湾民主宪政发展过程中的重要推手和亲历者，他的档案极其重要，需要好好整理。赵元任先生的档案多年来一直受到太平洋两岸学界的高度重视，开放并出版这批档案可以惠及学界。对于我个人来说，作为一个语言学方面的学者，如能把中国语言学之父赵元任先生的档案全部整理出版出来，这不仅仅是应了赵元任家人的要求，我也可以回归我的本行。所以退休对我来说只是一个新征程的开始。

最后想对近年来新加入到SCSL的同行们说几句话。和我在三十多年前一样，你们今天投身到北美东亚图书馆行业，这是你们最好的选择。你们将驰骋在东西方学界和信息界的海洋，周游于太平洋两岸，承担各种学术和文化使命，你们何其幸运，祝你们事业有成，期待看到你们的新篇章！

第八屆中美高校圖書館合作發展論壇在香港大學成功舉辦

2025年7月14日至15日，第八屆中美高校圖書館合作發展論壇在香港大學圖書館隆重舉行。本屆論壇由中國高校人文社會科學文獻中心（CASHL）和北美中國研究圖書館員學會（SCSL）聯合主辦，香港大學圖書館承辦，主題為“圖書館的文化建設”。論壇匯聚了來自中國、美國、英國、新加坡等多國的圖書館專家、館員和學者，共同探討全球高校圖書館的未來發展。

開幕式上，香港大學副校長何立仁致歡迎辭，強調了港大圖書館在學術合作與知識傳播中的先鋒作用。SCSL主席周珞回顧了論壇自2011年創辦以來的歷程，肯定其作為中美及國際圖書館界重要交流平台的價值。CASHL副主任姚曉霞則強調了文化建設是圖書館發展的根基，並介紹了本屆論壇的五大分主題。

論壇安排了两場主旨報告。首先哈佛大學燕京圖書館館長楊繼東在《溝通文化：美國大學的東亞圖書館及其在中美交流中的角色》報告中，系統梳理了美國東亞圖書館的發展史，強調它們作為中美學術與文化溝通橋梁的角色。北京大學圖書館館長陳建龍以題為《圖書館的創新文化建設》的報告指出創新是圖書館的活力之源，呼喚圖書館應主動融入學校和國家創新體系，推動高質量發展。

在專題報告環節中，來自哥倫比亞大學、清華大學、牛津大學、南京大學、新加坡國立大學等全球知名高校的20多位專家、館員和學者，圍繞以下核心議題進行了深入交流：

- 圖書館的文化傳承與創新
- 服務文化的建設
- 文化如何賦能圖書館發展
- 智能科技在圖書館的應用
- 新型館員的培養

接着为周珞主席主持的座谈会，邀请专题报告环节主持人分享其心得。本届论坛首次增设海报展示，共收到35张参展海报，丰富了交流形式并激发了更多互动与讨论。稍后香港大学冯平山图书馆副馆长李俊祺宣布优秀征文名单。

在总结环节，周珞主席高度评价了本届论坛在促进国际合作、资源开放和数字化转型方面的成效。复旦大学图书馆副馆长王乐代表CASHL全国中心提出了图书馆发展的“3C”关键——联系（Connection）、沟通（Communication）、合作（Collaboration），并强调馆员能力建设和创新与坚守并重是图书馆可持续发展的核心。

全体与会者共同期待在2027年的下一届论坛於中国南京再次相聚。
